

FIRE AND SECURITY ENGINEER APPRENTICE

The Role:

As a Fire and Security Engineer Apprentice working for Logic Fire & Security Ltd, you will get the opportunity to work alongside fully qualified engineers, gaining a thorough understanding of various fire and security systems. At the end of the apprenticeship program, you will be fully prepared to complete maintenance and remedial works on a variety of fire safety and security equipment as a qualified engineer.

The Candidate: Skills & Personal Qualities

- Will be able to work under pressure and to communicate effectively on all levels
- Have basic computer skills to complete the online coursework modules.
- Excellent communication & listening skills.
- Organised & eager to learn

Main Duties:

Duties would include assisting and learning from fully qualified engineers on various jobs, such as:

- Maintenance and commissioning of Conventional and Addressable Fire Detection Systems.
- Installation and Maintenance of Security System including Intruder, Access Control and CCTV Systems.
- Installation and Maintenance of Emergency Lighting Systems.
- Fault finding and repairs of both Fire and Security Systems.
- Maintenance of Portable Fire Extinguishers.
- Commission of Fire and Security Systems upon completion.

As well as assisting other engineers, you will also be required to:

- Prepare daily reports/work sheets and job sheets via the company operating system.
- Have a flexible approach to working hours, out of hours working will be required at times as will working away from home from time to time.
- Completion of site asset registers.
- Completion of sketches for site zone plans & As Fitted drawings.
- To be able to deal with client requests in an appropriate manner.

Apprenticeship Details:

The standard you will work towards is Fire Emergency and Security Systems Technician Level 3. All coursework is completed online. You will have one day a week at our offices dedicated to completing coursework modules. Upon successful completion of the apprenticeship, a position would be available as a fire & Security Engineer.

Remuneration & benefits:

- Wage paid hourly.
- 40 hours per week Monday to Friday.
- Annual leave entitlement is 21 days + bank holidays per annum, increasing by 1 day p.a. at the commencement of the new leave year, up to a max. of 5 additional days. This is effective after the completion of 1 years' service.
- Company Pension.

Logic Fire and Security are an Equal Opportunities Employer and proactively promote equal opportunities throughout the Company. Logic has a Zero Tolerance policy regarding any harassment in any form.

If you are interested in the above position, please respond in writing with your CV and cover letter to recruitment@logicfireandsecurity.com